resolution passed in both Houses to-day for final adjournment at 2 o'clock next Tuesday.

Representative Catchings, of the House Committee on Rules, had called on the President earlier in the day and on reaching the Capitol conferred with Speaker Crisp as to the adjournment. The resolution was thereupon framed and introduced with the authority of the Rules Committee.

It is understood that Mr. Catchings outlined this plan to the President, and it met with approval. Mr. Catchings would say little as to his talk with the President. He regarded it as settled, however, that the bill would became a law next Monday midnight, without the President signature.

Mr. Catchings also inclined to the belief that the President would send a message to Congress on the subject. It is said that while a message on a measure not vetoed or signed would be innusual, it would be entirely regular.

If any positive action on the President's part had been contemplated to morrow or Monday, the House managers would not have bound themselves to postpone the adjournment until Tuesday next. Chairman Wilson also went to the Washington were and says he is not responsible for what appears in the newspapers.

Many other large firms are going into the same practice, and it can easily be foreseen that unless an end is soon put to it nothing will be left for New York workingmen but to leave this city altogether. In view of the fact that the New York landlord is paid much higher rents by his tenants than the rural landlord, he ought to be content to pay proportionately higher wages to those who build his houses. The rural artisan, with his $10 per month rent, can get along quite well on $1.75 to $2 a day, which in New York would be equivalent to starvation wages."

In order to make peaceful propaganda for these views, Mr. Hausch says that the Trades Conference will hereafter send a circular to every contractor as soon as he files his plans with the Building Department, asking him not to use material that hes been produced by chemoet labor than that regulated by the union scale.

The Trades Conference has also received notice that the United Carpenters of New York will inaugurate a light on Sept. 1 against the so-called "lumping system." ## MILLS MAY SOON START.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 24.—18

The operatives were notified to-der when they were paid off and asked to come in.
Some of them told the officials they would, but later they said they would go back only at the old wages.

On March 13 the Commissioners reported making an award of $350. The report was sent back as inadequate. The Commissioners then made the award $500, claiming that they had made a mistake by misapplying the law.

Justice Bartlett to-day sends the report back again, and very decidedly wants to know just what the misapplication was.
